If you are successful in your application you will be required to complete a Criminal Records Bureau Disclosure Application Form. Any information disclosed will be handled in accordance with the Code of Practice published by the Criminal Records Bureau (a copy of which is available from the School on request).

The School is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and therefore all convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings (including those which would normally be considered "spent" under the Act) must be declared. If you have a criminal record this will not automatically debar you from employment. Instead, each case will be assessed fairly by reference to the School's objective assessment procedure (a copy of which is available from the School on request).

[The successful candidate must be ISA registered, or prepared to apply for ISA registration.]

Have you been convicted by the courts of any criminal offence? Yes No

Is there any relevant court action pending against you? Yes No

Have you ever received a caution, reprimand or final warning from the police? Yes No

If 'YES' to any of the above, please provide details on a separate sheet and send this in a sealed envelope marked "confidential" with your Application Form.

Section 10 – References

Please supply the names and contact details of two people who we may contact for references. One of these must be your current or most recent employer. If your current/most recent employment does/did not involve work with children, then your second referee should be from your employer with whom you most recently worked with children. Neither referee should be a relative or someone known to you solely as a friend. The School intends to take up references from all shortlisted candidates before interview. The School reserves the right to take up references from any previous employer.

All new posts within the School are subject to a probationary period.

The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
