

Job details

Food Technology Technician

Employer	The Royal School Wolverhampton
Location	Wolverhampton, West Midlands
Contract type	Permanent
Contract term	Term time only Monday & Tuesday 8.30am-4pm Thursday 29th October 2020 (midday)
Closing date
Job starts	ASAP

The Royal School is seeking a food technology technician to support the food technology qualifications, pupils and staff.

Role and Responsibilities

- Being aware of responsibilities under child protection legislation and reporting concerns to the Designated Safeguarding Lead.
- To ensure that all health and safety regulations are followed.
- To follow COVID-19 guidance on health and safety within a working environment.
- Preparing the classroom in preparation for lessons.
- Repairing and clearing away materials and equipment.
- Assisting teaching staff with demonstration lessons and practicals.
- Making arrangement for maintenance and repair services to equipment.
- Assisting in the development of lesson plans.
- Promoting healthy eating.
- Maintaining stock and breakage records, catalogues and user manuals.
- Ordering, receiving and accounting for new stock and equipment.

Person specification

- A good sense of humour.
- Enjoyment of working with children.
- Experience of preparing food.
- Ability to manage children.
- Good communication skills.
- The ability to work as part of a team.
- Clearance from the Disclosure and Barring Service.

Please visit The Royal School website for further information and details of how to apply. CVs are not accepted.