The Royal School is looking for a dynamic, innovative, and empathetic houseparent to join our boarding team and add to our award-winning boarding experience. The role of a houseparent, while challenging is often the most fulfilling and rewarding role in the school and here at the Royal, this is no different. The successful candidate will have the opportunity to contribute and build on our boarding experience that has helped students achieve academic and extra-curricular success (including a gold medal and MBE).

The Royal School Wolverhampton has a clear focus on excellence, with the pupils at the heart of everything we do. It is expected that anyone joining the team will be able to fully support the unique ethos of the school.

The Royal School is at an exciting time of development. The free school is an all-through (Reception to Y13) 'independent' school without day fees whilst still providing excellent boarding at affordable fees. Alongside the growth in pupil numbers, there will be an expansion in the curriculum, enrichment activities and improved facilities, enabling us to extend and enhance still further the range of opportunities for all our young people.

The Royal School has achieved excellent academic results throughout its history and has an outstanding reputation for nurturing and developing confident, well-disciplined and successful individuals who progress successfully to the next stage of their life and career. We relish this next phase in its existence which enables us to review and build on our current success in preparing our young people for a rapidly evolving world. We hope that you will share in this passion for a broader educational opportunity.

If you are a highly efficient professional, able to use your initiative, work under pressure and have a good sense of humour, we want to hear from you. Please visit the Royal School website for further information and details of how to apply.

Accommodation is available with this role.
